

Packing and marking

Packing shall secure full safety of the Goods to protect them from any kind of damage during transportation by any transport means including transshipment and storage; it shall also protect the Goods from atmospheric effects.